The Frankfort Commonwealth. A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful Lexington for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unexcelled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stiring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vita question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate fireside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

The WEEKLY will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type. Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

Proclamation of the Governor.

Whereas, numerous applications have been nade to me from many good citizens of this ommonwealth, praying me to issue a procla nation forbidding the march of any forces of this or any other State or States over our soil. to make an apprehended attack upon the Federal forces at Cairo, in Illinois, or to disturb any otherwise the peaceful attitude o Kentucky with reference to the deplorable war now waging between the United States and the Confederate States. And whereas, numerous applications from like good citizen of this Commonwealth have also been madto me, praying me to issue a proclamation or the march over our sacred soil by an orce of the United States for any purpose And whereas, it is made fully evident, b every indication of public sentiment, that is the determined purpose of the good people of Kentucky to maintain, with courageou firmness, the fixed position of self-defense proposing or intending no invasion or ag gression towards any other State or States, forbidding the quartering of troops upon her soil by either of the hostile sections, but sim oly standing aloof from an unnatural, horrid and lamentable strife, for the existence of which Kentucky, neither by thought, word nor act, is in any wise responsible. whereas, the policy thus recommended by s many of my fellow-citizens of all politica leanings, is, in my judgment, wise, peaceful safe, and honorable, and the most likely t preserve peace and amity between the neigh poring bordering States on both shores of the Ohio river, and protect Kentucky, general ly, from the ravages of a deplorable war. And whereas, the arms distributed to the State Guard," composed as it is of gentle not to be used against the Federal Government nor the Confederate States, but to resist and prevent encroachments upon her soil, her rights, her honor, and her sovereignty by either of the belligerent parties, and to pre serve the peace, safety, prosperity, and hap piness and strict neutrality of her people, i the hope she may soon have an opportunit o become a successful mediator between them; and in order to remove the unfounde distrust and suspicions of purposes to force Kentucky out of the Union, at the point o he bayonet-which may have been strongly and wickedly engendered in the public mind n regard to my own position and that of the State Guard.

Now, therefore, I, BERIAH MAGOFFIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Ken ucky, and Commander-in-Chief of all her AVING opened a Gallery, the undersigned respectfully informs the citizens of Frankfort and vicinity, that he is prepared to take pictures in the best style. Having a superior Camera, he thinks he can please those who may favor him with their patronage.

A Practical Treatise for the use of Justices of the Peace, Constables, Sheriffs, Jailers, and Coroners in Kentucky.

BY RICHARD H. STANTON, MAYSVILLE, KY.

THIS NEW WORK, WHICH HAS been prepared with unusual diligence and care by the author, is intended to be a complete and perfect guide to Justices of the Peace, and the other officers named above, in the discharge of their respective duties under the laws of the state. Its arrangement is such, that while it presents to the officer a full view of the law which he may be called upon to enforce, whether civil or criminal, it affords him such complete and accurate instructions as to the practical manner of discharging his duties, in each particular case, that it will be almost impossible for the least informed among them to go astray.

Every necessary form which a justice of the peace, or other officer may require in the course of his official duties, will be found in its appropriate place in the work; and the instructions are so full, perspicuous and clear, that it will be found an invaluable official companion to those for whom Pure Sheiry Wine.

Imported and bottled by himself, the same as the Port Wine.

the treatise is intended, and a highly useful work to the legal profession, and all others having business with those officers. The author has apprend iness with those officers. The author has spared no labor to make it just such a work as is now most needed by the class of officers whose duties men equally conscientious and honest, who entertain the opinions of both parties, are not to be used equilibrium. It is of gentle-ment of the best wine ever offered for sale to the trade in bottles. This wine is warranted the hearty patronage of all persons in Kentucky concerned in the administration of the law.

The work contains six hundred and fifty octavo pages, is printed on fine paper, and with large, clear type, and bound in the very best style. Price, $4 00. S. C. BULL, Frankfort, Ky.

the South, the East, or the West, but is, simply, ment which, for nearly seventy years, has remained faithful to them. Still it cannot be denied that there is in the bosom of that State a band of agitators, who, though few in number, are yet powerful from the public confidence they have enjoyed, and who have been, and doubtless will continue to be, unceasing in their endeavors to force Kentucky to unite her fortunes with those of the East, and the West, are luminous with the banners and glistening to the Captalage of the South. Never have the safety and honor of her people required the exercise of sa much vigilance. people required the exercise of so much vigilance and of so much courage on their part. If true to themselves, the stars and stripes, which, like angels' wings, have so long guarded their homes from every oppression, will still be theirs; but if, chasing the dreams of men's ambition, they shall prove false, the blackness of darkness can but faintly predict the gloom that awaits them. The aintly predict the gloom that awaits them. The iment at once offered their services to suppress it laintly predict the gloom that awaits them. The Legislature, it seems, has determined by resolution that the State, pending the present unhappy war, shall occupy neutral ground. I must say, in all frankness and without desiring to reflect upon the course or sentiments of any, that, in this struggle for the existence of our Government, I can neither practice nor profess nor feel neutrality. I would as soon think of being neutral in a larger amount of social position, culture, fortune. ty. I would as soon think of being neutral in a contest between an officer of justice and an incendiary arrested in an attempt to fire the dwelling over my head; for the Government whose overthrow is sought is for me the shelter not only of tectors, to relieve the Union sentiment of the se blessing which I can hope to enjoy on this side of the grave. If, however, from a natural horror of fratricidal strife, or from her intimate social and business relations with the South, Kentucky shall be used to the forts and arsenals from which determine to maintain the neutral attitude assumed for her by her Legislature, her position will still be an honorable one, though falling far short of that fall measure of loyalty which her history way.

Its forts, are all though still be an honorable one, though falling far short of that full measure of loyalty which her history has so constantly illustrated. Her executive, ignoring, as I am happy to believe, alike the popular and legislative sentiment of the State, has, by proclamation, forbidden the Government of the United States from marching troops across her territory. This is, in no sense, a neutral step, but one of aggressive hostility. The troops the Federal Government have as clear a constitu-tional right to pass over the soil of Kentucky as that their safety demands this; we know that ours ton, and could this prohibition be effective, would not only be a violation of the fundamental law, but would, in all its tendencies, be directly in advancement of the revolution, and might, in an emergency easily imagined, compromise the highest national interests. I was rejoiced that the Legislature so promptly refused to endorse ourselves, without self-immolation, destroy, nor this proclamation as expressive of the true policy of the State. This was the requital which the lone star State made to brave men who, through long years of peril and privation, had guarded its frontiers against the incursions of the savages. In the midst of the most netive and extended warlike preparations in the South, the announcement was made by the Secretary of War of the seeded States, and echoed with taunts and insolent bravadoes by the southern press, that Washington City was to be invaded and captured, and that the flag of the Confederate States would soon float over the dome of its capital. And this terse language disposes of the whole controversy which has arisen out of the secession movement in regard to the allegiance of the citizen. As the power of the State and Federal Governments are in perfect harmony with each other, so there can be no conflict between the allegiance due to them; each, while acting within the sphere of its constitutionwhoop, which used to startle the sleep of our fron-tiers, so died away in her ears that she is willing to take the red-handed savage to her bosom as they owe to the government assailed, is one of the

The people of the South now sleep quietly in their than the confederacy, she would be a frontier state, and necessarily the victim of those border feuds and conflicts which have become proverbial in history alike for their fierceness and frequency. Kentucky separates herself from the Union, it must be upon the basis that the separation is to be final and eternal. Is there aught in the organization or administration of the Government misguided Virginia that is not filled with the misguided Virginia that is not filled with the alarms and oppressed by the terrors of war. In the fate of this ancient Commonwealth, dragged to the altar of sacrifice by those who should have took between the public service. The country in its agony is feeling the altar of sacrifice by those who should have took between the public service. o the altar of sacrifice by those who should have tood between her bosom and every foe, Ken-ucky may read her own. No wonder, therefore, her fortunes with those of the South, and to lay down the bodies of her chavilric sons as a breastwork, behind which the Southern people may be sheltered. Even as attached to the Southern these agitators perish, politically, if need be, by onfederacy she would be weak for all the purpo- scores; es of self-protection as compared with her pres-ent position. But amid the mutations incident to such a helpless and self-disintegrating league, Kentucky would probaby soon find herself ad-nering to a mere fragment of the Confederacy, or t may be standing entirely alone, in the pres-nce of tiers of free States with populations ex-ceding by many millions herown. Feeble States hus separated from powerful and warlike neighors by ideal boundaries, or by rivers as easily mey. But although this traffic has been temporarily interdicted by the seceded States, it is well ty-three whose vote can possibly be secured, which is less than the constitutional number.

Thus we have the extraordinary and discreditable spectacle of a revolution made by certain States professedly on the ground that guarantees for the safety of their institutions are denied them, and at the same time, instead of co-operating with their sister States in obtaining these guarantees, they designedly assume a hostile attitude, and thereby render it constitutionally impossible to secure them. This profound dissimulation of the profound dissimulation of the profound dissimulation of the first tade, by a Republic professing to be defined administration of this trade, by a Republic professing to be designed on the galization of that feeling?—that the sun has indeed been stricken save timely as does the conclusion from the premises of southern slaveholders in the Territories, still the authoritories in the Government, in reference to the rights of Southern slaveholders in the Territories, still the authoritories in the Government, in reference to the rights of Southern slaveholders in the Government, in reference to the rights of Southern slaveholders in the Government, in reference to the rights of Southern slaveholders in the Government, in reference to the rights of that feeling?—that the sun sa disappear forever amid the the European powers. The ultimate legalization of this trade, by a Republic professing to be sade upon African servitude, must follow as certainly as does the conclusion from the premises of Southern slaveholders in the designation. I do not Leannet believe it.

For this catalogue of what Kentucky must surfer in abandoning her present honored and secure position, and becoming a member of the Southern Confederacy, what will be her indemnity? Nothing, absolutely nothing. The ill-woven ambition of some of her of sons may possibly reach the Presidency of the New Republic; that is all. Alas! alas! for that dream of the Presidency of a Southern Republic, which has disturbed so many Alasi alasi for that dream of the Presidency of a southern Republic, which has disturbed so many billows in the South, and, perhaps, some in the West, also, and whose lurid light, like a demon's the result shall be the preservation of our instiorch, is leading a nation to perdition!

The clamor that in insisting upon the South the powers of the General Government are con cerned, are a unit, and laws passed by a majority of all are binding upon all. The laws and Constitution, however, which the South nows resists, have been adopted by her sanction, and the right she now claims is that of a feeble minority to re-peal what a majority has adopted. Nothing could be more fallacious.

Civil war, under all circumstances, is a terrible alamity, and yet, from the selfish ambition and wickedness of men, the best governments have not been able to escape it. In regarding that which has been forced upon the Government of the United States, Kentucky should not look s much at the means which may be necessarily em ployed in its prosecution as at the machination y which this national tragedy has been brought pon us. When I look upon this bright land, a sw months since so prosperous, so tranquil, and ofree, and now behold it desolated by war, and ipon us. the firesides of its thirty millions of people dark-ened, and their bosoms wrung with anguish, and know, as I do, that all this is the work of a scor or two of men, who, over all this national ruin and despair, and preparing to carve with the sword their way to seats of permanent power, I cannot FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY. they are accumulating upon their souls an amount of guilty hardl equalled in all the atrocities of treason and of homicide that JOHN A. FLYNN, TEACHER, have degraded the annals of our race from the foundatons of the world. Kentucky may rest well assured that this conflict which is one well assured that this conflict which is one of self-defense, will be pursued on the part of the Government in the paterkal spirit in which a father seeks to reclaim his erring offspring. No conquest, no effusion of blood, is sought. In sorrow, not in anger, the prayer of all is that the end may be reached without loss of life or waste of property. Among the most powerful instrumentalities, relied on for re-establishing the authority of the Government, is that of the Union sentiment of the South, sustained by allowated sentiment of the South, sustained by a liberated press. It is now trodden to the earth under a reign of terrorism which has no parallel but in the worst days of the French Revolution. The presence of the Government will enable it to rebound, and look its oppressors in the face. At present we are assured that in the seceded States no man expresses an opinion opposed to the revolution but at the hazard of his life and property.

The only light which is admitted into political Virginia published a manifesto, in which he announce, with oracular solemnity and severity that all citizens who would not vote for secession but were in favor of the Union—not should or ought to-but "MUST leave the State." These words have in them decidedly the crack of the verseer's whip. The Senator evidently treats Virginia as a great negro quarter, in which the Senator, with this scourge of slaves, endeavor the drive the people of Western Virginia from the homes, I will only say, in the language of the narrative of Gilpin's ride:

"May I be there to see."

It would certainly prove a deeply interesting It is true that before this deliverance of the popular mind of the South from the threatening and alarm which have subdued it, can be accomplished, the remorseless agitators who have made ficult will be the task of overthrowing the as cendancy they have secured. Glorious Union Meeting -- R. C. Anderson for the Legislature.

On Wednesday the Union Democracy of Franklin county assembled at the Court House, for the purrose of nominating a candidate to represent Franklin county in the next Legislature. There was a full representation from all parts of the county. After a short consultation of the delegates from the various precincts, Capt. R. C. An Error Cornected. CLAYSVILLE, KY., June 10, 1861. Editor Frankfort Commonweaith:

DEAR SIR: I see the "Cynthiana News" has my name published as a delegate to the Convention that nominated the Hon. Wm-E. Simms for Congress, which I knew nothing of until the "News" published it; and if I had I should not have attended, for I cannot indorse all his notions, consequently could not vote for him. I voted the Union ticket at the May election, and shall vote for John J. Crittenden on the 20th of this month. Our precinct will give him a large Yours. majority.

AYER'S

Cure, ue

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries. No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quan-

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of Fever and Ague from the system and prevents the develop-ment of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every acked, on receipt of price and postage, $1 18.

AND AGUE prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and cer-tain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents, if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy af-
